

WEEKLY NEWS BULLETIN JUNE 14, 2015

Good Morning!

WELCOME TO SOUTH MAIN!

You're invited to be a part of our family as we worship God, encourage one another, and grow spiritually together.

When we meet together, we sing, pray, study the Bible, partake together in the communion of the Lord's supper, and enjoy great family fellowship.

A fully staffed nursery is available. Ask an usher for assistance.

During AM services, we offer signing for those who are hearing impaired.

Bob's Thoughts...

ARE WE HIDING?

When Adam and Eve sinned, they tried hiding from God. “And they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God amongst the trees of the garden.” (Genesis 3:8) We all know that God came calling anyway.

Cain didn't realize that God knew he had killed his brother Abel. When God inquired, “Where is Abel?” Cain responded with “How would I know?”

When Israel worshipped idols, they thought God couldn't see what they were doing. A generation arose that did not know God and thus forsook Him. They worshipped other gods and God judged them. (Judges 2:10-14)

Jonah mistakenly thought he could hide from God by leaving the country. Three days in the belly of the great fish helped to change his mind.

In each of these examples we see man's tendency to hide from God and his responsibility to Him. Our reaction to each of them probably is “How foolish can you get!” You can't run from God. Nevertheless, the fact remains that there is some Adam, Cain, and Jonah in all of us. We think that God doesn't see our secret sins, that He is present only in worship service. Remember that each one of these characters paid a heavy price for their flight from God, and so will we! Let us rather “Draw near to God that He may draw near to us.” (James 4:8)

Have a Great Week!
Bob

THANK YOU

Dear Friends,

Thank you for blessing me with your service in restoring my yard after the storm. As I looked around in the quiet stillness of Tuesday morning, my thought was "God, what are you going to do now?" I knew things would come together but had no idea how.

Your hard work relieved a big part of my stress. Now, I can see the street from my bedroom window again.

What a wonderful example you set for the youth and others. I don't want to miss anyone who helped so will not try to list names. You and God know who you are.

Love & Blessings,
Ann Ussery

The Family Life...

7 • 5 • 2

I enjoy garage sales, flea markets and junk stores. You know, the whole thing about, "One man's junk is another man's treasure." One time I was with my mother, who is even more of a flea market troll than I am. She came across a simple metal serving plate. It was seductively calling to her from under a pile of warped and tomato-stained tupperware. As soon as she lifted it from the rubble, she knew exactly what she had. It's shine was long gone and there were a couple of dents along the edge where the plate had had more than one sudden encounter with the floor. She flipped it over, noting its weight, or actually, lack of it, and quickly determined this plate was a pretender. Early in its life, it might have passed for a silver platter, but there was no denying its true identity now.

"That's $10," offered the man who was squarely on the treasure side of the equation.

"Ten dollars?" my mother protested with a perplexed look on her and never one to be timid in negotiations.

"Well, yes ma'am," he countered in a deep East Texas accent. And then with a slow, deliberate, almost divine reverence, he added, "That there is genu-u-wine!"

Much more quickly, but using the exact same pronunciation, my mom shot back, "Genuwine WHAT? It's aluminum!"

The man looked honestly offended. My mother dropped it on the table and we moved on.

Sometimes we hold on to things because we've convinced ourselves that they have real value. Things like cars, boats, hobbies, habits, traditions or even friends. Things that may have at one time been beneficial, innocent diversions or even positive influences in our lives. But as time went on, their true nature came to the surface. The shine wore off and the reality was dull and not pretty at all.

Then God comes along and says, "Let me take this junk off your hands and get it out of your way. Turn it over to me."

But we protest, "You can't! It's too valuable. It means too much to me to just give it to you." What we are really saying is, "I want these things and these people around me more than I want you, God."

Jesus summed it up best, "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." (Matt 6:21)

I often fail to realize that I am the only treasure in God's eyes. I'm guessing you probably forget that, too, sometimes. He was willing to pay a high price for us. And trying to convince him there is genuine value in the junk we want to treasure, may eventually make him just move along without us.
