CONTRIBUTION LETTERS

If you intend to claim your 2023 contributions to South Main Church of Christ on your tax returns, you are required to have a letter, typed on church letterhead, to support your claim. However, as a non-profit, we are only required to keep a record of contributions in the amount of $250 or more. Checks given for less than that amount are not recorded separately. SO, if you need a letter to support your total giving for the year 2023, you will need to submit a list of your contributions (dates, check numbers and amounts) to Renee Hampton or Rodger Poe in order to obtain the requested acknowledgement. Rest assured, this information is kept confidential and will not be shared.

PLEASE NOTE: Only contributions/donations that did NOT result in you or a family member receiving something directly in return can be included. For example: monies given in exchange for a Wednesday Night Meal MAY NOT be included; however, a separate, stand-alone donation given to the Wednesday Night Meal Ministry MAY be included.
